

Library

LIB 101 1 Credit

INTRODUCTION TO RESEARCH

Quarters: Summer, Fall, Winter, Spring

This course teaches students an understanding of both the research process as well as essential research skills. Students will learn how to identify and narrow research topics, plan and carry out research, identify credible sources, and utilize appropriate citation methods. Some sections may have a low-cost or no-cost text book option.